

Course development plan

Course name:

Together with your certificate of course completion this development plan will form a record of your learning and development achieved through this online course.

Complete the aims and impact sections before beginning the course and then return to this document to add your reflections and plan your next steps.

Aims: What do you aim to achieve by completing this course?

Reflection on aims: What have you achieved by completing this course? Does it match your original aims?

Personal impact: What impact will completing this course have on your teaching and your students?

Reflection on personal impact:

Wider impact: What impact will completing this course have on your department or wider network?

Reflection on wider impact:

Next steps: What is the next step in your continuous personal development?

Supporting comments from signatory:

