INTRODUCTION

The postgraduate students of the school of Chemical Sciences, Universiti Sains Malaysia (USM) presenting, for the seventh time, the biannual Penang International Conference for Young Chemists (ICYC 2019). This is a unique conference dedicated for and organized by young chemists. Chemistry is an established science, but its terrain still baffles us with many unanswered questions and challenges. It is a good way to unravel these issues by creating an international platform for researchers to gather and share their knowledge apart from establishing network. This is what our organizing committee strives to achieve through hosting ICYC 2019.

OBJECTIVES

- ♦ To forge a strong bond among local and international postgraduate researchers in chemistry.
- ♦ To enable researchers to keep up-to-date on the latest trends and developments in research conducted by their peers in different parts of the world.
- ♦ To encourage exchange of ideas and experiences in various fields of chemistry.

WHO SHOULD ATTEND

- ♦ Postgraduates from various higher learning institutions world wide.
- ♦ Academic staffs from the various higher learning institutions world wide.
- ♦ Researchers from research centres and private sectors.

PROGRAMME

The conference consists of oral and poster presentations on the following fields of chemistry:

- ♦ Analytical Chemistry
- ♦ Environmental Chemistry
- ♦ Inorganic Chemistry
- ♦ Organic Chemistry
- ♦ Physical Chemistry
- ♦ Industrial Chemistry
- ♦ Biochemistry
