

Minimise Waste & Save Money

Knowsley Hall, November 13th 2008

- Understand how to minimise waste in your company
- Increase Resource Efficiency and make long-term savings
- Network and learn from other chemical companies

ABOUT THE EVENT

For this month's Chemical Elements we are joining forces with Envirowise to bring you the latest on waste management and minimisation (and saving money!). Mark Hilton from Envirowise will provide an update on legislation impacting this topic for the sector. Shell and Pentagon, short listed for the resource efficiency award at the 2008 CIA Awards, will be presenting the ways in which they have reduced waste and the positive impacts on their businesses.

At the end of the event you are warmly invited to a free wine tasting which will provide an idea opportunity for further networking.
