Multilayer Packaging Films 2011

25-27 October 2011,
Maritim Hotel, Cologne, Germany

AMI is pleased to invite you to attend the Multilayer Packaging Films 2011 conference, which takes place from 25-27 October 2011 at the Maritim Hotel in Cologne, Germany. This year the conference commences with a view of the flexible packaging markets from several perspectives: a top brand owner, a market expert and a leading manufacturer of speciality films.

Sustainability is a key issue in the packaging industry at present and this will be covered from a wide range of viewpoints. There are also advances in sealing properties of films, adhesive and inter-adhesive layers including a new supplier. The right machinery can improve production, cut downtime and reduce costs – some key manufacturers will be exhibiting and talking about their latest developments in multilayer film production. Barrier properties are critical for many applications and this topic will be discussed by materials and machinery companies.

There are currently a number of interesting new innovations including active packaging from one leading film company, and state-of-the-art sensor development for smart packaging from a top research institute.

Multilayer Packaging Films 2011 brings together the whole industry supply chain and offers a meeting point to keep up to date with market trends and developments in flexible packaging materials. It provides a unique time to network and assess future opportunities.

EARLY BIRD REGISTRATION OFFER

Register before 16th September 2011 and pay €890* saving €100* on the full price of €990*. There are additional discounts for group bookings. The registration fee includes attendance at all conference sessions, the welcome cocktail reception, lunch and refreshment breaks on both days, and a set of conference proceedings.
