

SCIENCE AND THE SENEDD 2020

Webinar, 5.00pm to 6.30pm, Tuesday 22nd September 2020.

Theme: 'Climate Science, Sustainability.....and Covid-19'.

AGENDA

5.00pm Welcome

Paul Lewis

Deputy Chief Executive, Royal Society of Chemistry

5.10pm Panel Session

Professor Peter Knowles (Session Chair)

Professor of Inorganic Chemistry, Cardiff University

Christine Wheeler

Deputy Director, Decarbonisation and Energy Division, Welsh Government

'Tackling climate change in the Welsh Government'

Professor Mary Gagen

Professor of Geography, Swansea University:

'Teaching sustainable science, teaching science sustainably: lessons from the Swansea University Science for School's Scheme'

Professor Davey L Jones

Professor of Soil and Environmental Science; Associate Pro-Vice Chancellor (Grant Capture and Impact), Bangor University: 'Tracking COVID-19 in Wales using environmental wastewater surveillance'

Dr Geertje van Keulen

Associate Professor, Institute of Life Science, Swansea University:

'Soil Health'

Professor Richard Lucas

Sêr Cymru Chair, Earth Observation and Ecosystem Dynamics Research Group, Aberystwyth University: 'Living Wales and the World: Addressing Climatic Fluctuation and Sustainability through Earth Observations'

5.50pm Questions

6.10pm Sponsoring Members

David Rees MS

Chair, Cross-Party Group on STEMM, Welsh Parliament

Dr Dai Lloyd MS

Vice Chair, Cross-Party Group on STEMM, Welsh Parliament

Nick Ramsay MS

Vice-Chair, Cross-Party Group on STEMM, Welsh Parliament

6.20pm Closing Remarks

Paul Lewis

Deputy Chief Executive, Royal Society of Chemistry