Plagiarism Policy:

All submissions must be original, with correct citation of all the sources. It is forbidden to plagiarize, including self-plagiarism. Every contribution is checked for plagiarism. If plagiarism is found, the submission is rejected, the author's institution is notified, and it will not allowed to submit the work again. The acceptance plagiarism is 10% from all sources and not more than 2% from a single source. When submitting work, authors attest to its originality and take full responsibility for its content. Author can file an appeal with the program chair. The purpose of this communication is to raise awareness of academic integrity and correct citation.