

A

The image shows two test tubes, labeled A and B, containing dark, opaque liquids. The liquid in tube A is a dark brown color, while the liquid in tube B is a very dark, almost black color. Both tubes are filled to approximately the same level. The background is a light, neutral color.

B